2. A gain, I dream'd And the same one seem'd With a win-ning smile to come,
 3. Once more I dream'd And the same one seem'd An An-gel sat my side,

And point the way, At the close of day, To a pleas-ant cot-tage home
 And I bound my lot With a dou-ble knot, Which both, to-ge-ther tied

In o--pen view Were seats for two, A-midst a flow'ry scene
 I thought at last, I had her fast But all my hopes had flown;

D.S. Symphonic.

'Twas just the place, To have a chase, Or dance with some may queen.
 When morn-ing broke, And I a-woke, And found my-self a -- lone.
